Once-in-a-Lifetime Journeys

EXCLUSIVE  RESORTS

Travel Far, Grow Closer

Travel gives insight into the places we know least and teaches us more about the people we know best.

Our 2021 Once-in-a-Lifetime Journeys have distinct itineraries—from reef diving in Belize to gorilla tracking in Uganda—created for and available only to Club Members.

Every Journey is an opportunity to explore together, and the world is vast and wide.

Belize: Reef Adventure Cruise

Discover Caribbean natural wonders and nautical thrills on this vibrant new Journey aboard the Lindblad National Geographic Quest. After visiting the lively markets of Guatemala City, dive into seven days of adventure in Belize's barrier reef. Scuba and snorkel coral reefs ablaze in radiant life, kayak into cathedral-like shadow caves, and paddle board atop crystalline turquoise waters surrounded by beaches and jungle. Exploration ashore includes a visit to Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary, the world's first jaguar reserve, nature trail hikes, and local cultural activities. Embrace Belize's sumptuous cuisine, sparkling resources, and bighearted people and be rewarded in body and soul.

Morocco: Marrakech, High Atlas, and Fes

Welcome to the part of Africa that famous designer Yves St Laurent once said, “introduced me to color.” Enter Morocco, land of rich history, raw beauty, and fascinating people. A single day uncovers a myriad marvel on guided walks and sidecar rides through the vibrant souks and aromatic spice markets of the medina (“old city”). Meander through majestic palaces, 12th-century mosques, lush gardens, and then hike through the seclusive Berber villages quietly tucked into the High Atlas Mountains above busy Marrakech. Each day offers a variety of activities designed to inspire and connect. There will be ample free time reserved to find local wares and keepsakes while shopping or enjoying some relaxation, ensuring you leave both fulfilled and energized.

Uganda and Rwanda: Tracking the Great Apes

There are a little over 1,000 mountain gorillas left on Earth, most of which reside in the lush mountain forests between Uganda and Rwanda. On this 10-day Journey, not only will you expertly track these gentle giants, but also conquer a spectacular waterfall hike in Bwindi Impenetrable Forest National Park, observe chimpanzees in Kalinzu, and search for lions in Queen Elizabeth National Park on a guided wildlife safari. Journey accommodations include private bungalows facing the open Ugandan savannah and a hilltop eco-lodge with views of Rwandan volcanoes. Known respectively as the “Pearl of Africa” and “The Land of One Thousand Hills,” these beautiful countries are sure to astonish any and all who visit.
